

Join us at the Citrus Growers Educational Seminar Series

Presented by the Citrus Research Board and University of California Cooperative Extension

FREE, NO REGISTRATION FEE, BUT RSVPS ARE APPRECIATED.

Central Valley Exeter, California

Tuesday, June 27

Exeter Veterans Memorial Building
324 N. Kaweah Avenue
Exeter, California 93221

Registration: 7:30 am
Seminar: 8:00 am – Noon

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

Greg Douhan, UCCE Citrus Advisor, and Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Ph.D. –
*Director of Lindcove REC and Research
Entomologist, University of California,
Riverside*

-Regional citrus update

Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Ph.D. –
*Director of Lindcove REC and Research
Entomologist University of California,
Riverside*

- Management strategies for
Asian citrus psyllid

Joe Morse, Ph.D. – *University of
California, Riverside*

- Dr. Morse's final CRB talk in Exeter:
Past and present review of Integrated Pest Management (IPM) and thoughts on the future

Ed Stover, Ph.D. – *USDA-ARS, Fort Pierce,
Florida*

-Breeding citrus for HLB
tolerance/resistance

Carol Lovatt, Ph.D. – *University of
California, Riverside*

-Alternate bearing

Central Coast Santa Paula, California

Wednesday, June 28

Santa Paula Community Center
530 W. Main Street
Santa Paula, California 93060

Registration: 7:30 am
Seminar: 8:00 am – Noon

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

Ben Faber, Ph.D., UCCE Citrus Advisor

-Regional citrus update

Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Ph.D. –
*Director of Lindcove REC and Research
Entomologist, University of California,
Riverside*

-Management strategies for
Asian citrus psyllid

Joe Morse, Ph.D. – *University of
California, Riverside*

-Dr. Morse's final CRB talk in Santa Paula: Past and present review of Integrated Pest Management (IPM)
and thoughts on the future

Ed Stover, Ph.D. – *USDA-ARS, Fort Pierce,
Florida*

-Breeding citrus for HLB
tolerance/resistance

Carol Lovatt, Ph.D. – *University of
California, Riverside*

-Alternate bearing

Southern California – Desert Temecula, California

Thursday, June 29

City of Temecula Conference Room
41000 Main Street
Temecula, California 92590

Registration: 7:30 am
Seminar: 8:00 am – Noon

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

Gary Bender, Farm Advisor Emeritus-Subtropical Horticulture

-Regional citrus update

Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Ph.D. –
*Director of Lindcove REC and Research
Entomologist University of California,
Riverside*

-Management strategies for
Asian citrus psyllid

Joe Morse, Ph.D. – *University of
California, Riverside*

-Dr. Morse's final CRB talk in Temecula: Past and present review of
Integrated Pest Management (IPM)
and thoughts on the future

Ed Stover, Ph.D. – *USDA-ARS, Fort Pierce,
Florida*

-Breeding citrus for HLB
tolerance/resistance

Carol Lovatt, Ph.D. – *University of
California, Riverside*

-Alternate bearing and late season lemon drop issues in the desert

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS WILL BE AVAILABLE, PENDING APPROVAL BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF PESTICIDE REGULATION.

PLEASE CALL THE CITRUS RESEARCH BOARD AT (559) 738-0246
OR EMAIL: EVENTS@CITRUSRESEARCH.ORG AT YOUR EARLIEST CONVENIENCE.
WATCH FOR MORE DETAILS AT WWW.CITRUSRESEARCH.ORG

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources