

UC Riverside and the Citrus Research Board partner to provide:

UC Riverside Citrus Day for the Industry

Tuesday, February 6, 2018

Registration starts at 7:00 am.

UCR Agricultural Operations, Riverside, California

Please join us for the 7th Annual Citrus Field Day designed for citrus growers and citrus industry representatives. We will be offering 5 hours of California Continuing Education Credit for Pest Control Advisers (PCA).

Schedule for presentations and field tours:

- 7:30 am Update on New Pesticide Regulations – Ruben Arroyo, Riverside County Ag Commissioner (1 hr. CE credit – Laws and Regulations)
- 8:30 am Updates: Citrus Research Board (Melinda Klein), California Citrus Pest and Disease Prevention Committee (Nick Condos)
Introductions: BSL3 Facility (Ben Quillian and Le'Kneitah Smith), UCR Prof. Public Policy (Bruce Babcock), and Riverside County Ag Commissioner (Ruben Arroyo)
- 9:00 am Using Antibiotics as part of an Integrated Management of HLB Taw Richardson (Agrosource)
- 9:30 am Panel Discussion on Huanglongbing of citrus Marylou Polek (USDA-ARS), Tracy Kahn, Peggy Mauk, Mike Roose, Georgios Vidalakis, and Beth Grafton-Cardwell (UC Riverside), Ruben Arroyo, and Nick Condos. Moderator will be Tom Delfino (1 hr. CE credit – other)
- 10:30 am BREAK/Poster sessions
- 11:00 am Desert lemon trial and the new multi-location lemon trial Glenn Wright (Univ. of Arizona)
- 11:30 am Management of Asian Citrus Psyllid – Beth Grafton-Cardwell (1 hr. CE credit – other)
- 12:00 pm Lunch/Poster session
- 1:00 pm (2 hr. CE credit – other):
New tool to control Phytophthora Root rot and Brown Rot Jim Adaskaveg/Helga Forster and Garrett Gilcrease (Syngenta)
Development of field tools for HLB management and breeding for resistance Chandrika Ramadugu
Field Discussion: Display and opportunity to provide feedback on unreleased hybrids, new irradiated selections and introductions Mike Roose and Tracy Kahn
- 3:00 pm Adjourn

Thank you to our sponsors:

